VOL. VII. NO. 107.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1901.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

WORTH'S SECOND DAY.

"After the storm a calm," and it was extremely calm at Worth yesterday after the rousing opening the handsome new track had Thursday.

There was a big crowd out, perhaps 3,000, but it was not of the holiday seeking nature, and although five of the six winners were strongly backed and the ring given a severe scorching, there was little enthusiasm displayed.

Mr. George C. Bennett, the popular horse owner and bookmaker from Memphis, had a good day with his horses, winning two races with Ed Austin and Monos and finishing second and third with Aransas and Merriman.

Mr. Bennett bets well on his own when he thinks he is right, and over the victory of Ed Austin he won well. Ed Austin is a handsome black colt by Wagner-May Kennedy, thereby being a half brother to the famous sprinter O'Connell, and from all indications is a cracker-jack. The youngster is named after Mr. Bennett's right hand man "Eddie" Austin, who is well known all over the country as one of the biggest bookmakers in the business, and with the Bennett contingent considerable sentiment is attached to the colt. All during the winter and early spring sensational reports had been sent out from training quarters about Ed Austin and it was expected he would win a stake or purse at the Memphis meeting, but somehow or other he was never sent to the post on the southern track and made his initial bow to the racing public in yesterday's first race at Worth. Those that keep close watch and read up on the early doings of youngsters each year were well acquainted with the colt and looked for him to be a hot favorite in with maidens as he was, but for some unknown reason the usually careful pencilers were caught out of line, and the first quotations against Ed Austin were 3 to 1. This price did not last long, however, and at post time 7 to 5 was the best odds obtainable against him. Coburn rode the "good thing," and getting away fourth, soon worked his way to the front, and headed for home two lengths and a half in the lead. At the eighth post Coburn looked over his shoulder, and seeing nothing near him, began easing up. This made it appear to the inexperienced ones that the colt was tiring, and Miracle II., who came rather fast at the end, gave them a scare, but Coburn knew what he was about and landed first past the post three-quarters of a length in advance of Mrs. Bradley's filly.

Followers of form backers of good things and in fact everyone in general was given a set back in the third race. This was under selling conditions at three-quarters of a mile and had eight starters, all of which were fancied more or less with the exception of Do Madge. This horse is said to be a sulker and perhaps is, but with "Jess" Mathews up, and 20 to 1 she forgot all about sulking, and after being last but one when passing the half mile ground she skimmed the rails on the turns and came home by herself. Princess Tatyana, with Dominick up, was supposed to be "the goods" in this race, but after being prominent for about a quarter of a mile she collapsed in a heap and finished absolutely last.

In Yana James Arthur has certainly a sweet filly and one that can hold her own almost anywhere. She appeared to be in a soft spot in the five furlongs two-year-old filly race, and was. Her opening price of 2 to 5 was hurriedly cut to 1 to 3 and at that price a ton of money was bet on her. There were only five starters in the race and Yana got away third but quicker than a wink she shot to the front and, setting a good hot pace for the first half, eventually won well in hand by about three lengths. Lady Bird, who was thought to be Yana's most formidable competitor, met with an accident that ruined whatever chance she may have had. Shortly after passing the half-mile post her bridle slipped and after that Birkenruth did well to stick on let alone being of any help to the filly.

"Jake" Marklein and his friends cleaned up well on Bengal in the second race. The Ben Strome-Begum gelding was thought pretty well of as a two-year-old around here last summer, but his racing this spring has been very ordinary, and although he was in with the cheapest lot of selling platers, the ring was willing to offer 2 to 1 against him. It seemed that everyone had a tip on Bengal, and from 2 to 1 he was cut to 9 to 5, then to 8 to 5 and finally closed at 7 to 5. He got away all tangled up and never really got himself together until after passing the half-mile post, then Bengal was very much in evidence. Still it seemed dubious for him on the stretch turn, where John Grigsby was "winging" out in front by three lengths. Once straightened out for home, however, the Marklein gelding quickly overhauled Grigsby and in a mild drive beat him by an open length.

There were all sorts of rumors afloat previous to the fourth race, one was that Monos was hardly ready, another that there was "nothing doing" on Patroon, and again more than likely Sculptress would run away with Gormley while at the post. These rumors frightened the public off and consequently speculation on the race was extremely light. Monos, however, was ready, and won from end to end. Sculptress did not run away with Gormley and finished third, but from the way Master J. Baker handled Patroon there might have been "nothing doing" on him and he dropped in fourth. The judges did not like Baker's ride and called him into the stand after the race, but the poor green boy told the truth and stated that he was riding to instructions, and that was all there was to it.

It was Pirate's Queen and nothing but Pirate's Queen from beginning to end in the closing one mile and twenty yards selling race. This consistent filly was a 7 to 10 favorite and many combinations wound up on her. Consequently when she came home safely leading the hearts of many pikers were gladdened. Second to Pirate's Queen was Red Apple, on whom a midget named Rice rode a desperate race. The youth was bent on getting through on the inside on the first turn and taking his life in his hands he managed to do so. From the way Red Apple bumped into and jumped on horses it is a wonder that he did not throw some other horse or go down himself, but fortunately nothing of this nature happened.

J. J. Sellers was fined $5 for sending Mr. Smith to the post with wrong colors in the second race.

J. D. Clayton, with Caviar, Brannigan and the rest of W. L. Lansing's string, arrived at Worth yesterday.

The judges fined Mr. Sweet $10 for running Patroon in blinkers without permission.

Harry Stover paid "Hardy" Durham $2,500 for Illowaho Thursday, and started him for the first time in the opening race. The colt showed nothing, but worked fast and should be marked for early action.

Jockey Crowhurst was on the sick list and did not ride yesterday.

Sam Hildreth is at Harlem with his entire string and also has Prince Poniatowski's Derby candidate Brutal in his charge.

Went to post at 2:38. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Fleuron ran a good race and outgamed Galathee when it came to the final drive. The pair raced like a team all the way and Galathee pulled up lame. King Elkwood only got third place in the last stride. Socapa did not run her race. She can do better. Economic showed improvement and finished stoutly.

Cochran was overconfident with Jordan and would have won had he gone about his business. Jaubert ran well to the stretch, but tired in the last furlong. Scortic stumbled after going a sixteenth and was pulled up.

The Rush showed great speed for over six furlongs. Joe Frey was never a serious contender at any part of the race and was no doubt short.

Scratched—22002 Omdurman, 100; 24648 Isabel, 95.

Winner—Ch. h, by Onondaga—Patty of Cork.

Went to post at 5:11. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second easily. Onomastus was best and showed the most speed but tired and barely lasted long enough. Woods kept looking around at the stretch turn in place of coming along about his business and nearly threw the race away. Janowood finished strongly and would have won in another stride. Sam P. Cochran showed speed, but tired at the end. Locust Blossom was in a pocket for the first half. Alex Pearson was ridden all over the track. Throw his race out.

Scratched—24584 Slips, 95.

KINLOCH WILL ASK FOR DATES.

At the regular monthly meeting to be held by the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club, Monday, May 6th, application will be made by the Kinloch Park Association, of St. Louis, Mo.,
"for dates commencing May 25th and continuing ninety days."

The reason for not granting the dates previously asked for, was that the stewards did not care to grant dates conflicting with Louisville and Latonia.

SAIN'S HIGH PROMISE.

Barney Schreiber is likely to be made rich and famous as a breeder if the progeny of his richly bred young sire Sain keep coming on up to the samples so far shown this year. The deeds of Corrigan and Zirl in California alone would suffice to give any sire distinction, but another good one was uncovered at St. Louis Thursday, of which yesterday's Republic says:
"Racing at the Fair Grounds yesterday was signalized by the debut of another sensational colt sired by the great Sain. Otis, a seal brown horse with white socks, a star and snip, won the 2-year-old event in a common gallop from a good field. He was the third of Sain's progeny to face the starter and the third to pass the wire, not only winner, but so thoroughly so as to greatly impress his value and class upon those who saw the race. After Otis pulled up yesterday every one said: 'He is the best horse Schreiber ever owned.'"

"Although the Australian horse, Foul Shot, disputes with Sain the honor of siring Otis, it is plain that the colt is a son of Sain. He looks like him, has the same high impress of character about the head, is turned about the body like his sire, and is in every way unlike the handsome, but hitherto impotent, race horses the dingo sire Foul Shot has begotten since he came to St. Louis County.

"On the strength of the great record made by Corrigan and Zirl, a son and daughter of Sain, Otis was made a warm favorite in the race. He was opened at 6 to 1. Though it was his first start, and, though the card said he was sired by Foul Shot or Sain, the bettors took it for granted that Sain was his sire. On the simple strength of this they backed the colt to even money in a jiffy. When he came to the post those who know Sain at once recognized Otis as his son. He bore the mark of Vere de Vere. Three swallows do not make a summer, and it may be that three winning colts of exceptional merit do not make Sain a great sire.
But it is no mean feather in the cap of a seven-year-old horse, two years in the stud, to sire three winners in three two-year-olds all of them apparently horses of exceptional merit."

Winner—Blk. c, by Wagner—May Kennedy.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good for all but Bragg. Won easily; second the same; third and fourth driving. Ed Austin had been highly tried and well spoken of all spring. He is a grand looker and won like a high-class colt. Coburn was easing up all the way from the sixteenth post home. Miracle II. is game and likes a route. He was badly interfered with shortly after the start, but overcame this handicap finally. Under a hard drive Brissac came along from a long way back in the stretch. He wants a longer route to do his best. Hat Mitchell broke fully in his stride and showed a fine turn of speed. He hung on longer than usual today. Mihara ran a good race. Illoaho has been highly tried, but showed nothing. The same can be said of Puryear. Fisher's Hornpipe showed speed, but it was not lasting.

Overweights—Bragg, 2 pounds.
Ed Austin, show, out. Miracle II., show, 8 to 5. Brissac, show, 8 to 5.

24700 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400; $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g, by Ben Strome—Begum.
Went to post at 2:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won mildly driven; second out to the last ounce. Bengal was best and finished stoutly under the whip. He bore in some in the stretch, but not enough to cause any interference. John Grigsby hugged the rail, was well ridden and did the best he is capable of. Little Pepper ran a fairly good race, as also did Zacatoso, who was interfered with often. The field, with the exception of Nibbler, was so closely bunched that a blanket would have covered them when passing the half mile post. Daisy O. is a non-stayer and quit badly in the stretch. It was a bad field.
Scratched—24404 Mattie Bazar, 107.
Overweights—Mr. Smith, 4 pounds.

Winner—Blk. f, by Major Domo—Madge.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; the next three were doing their best. Do Madge regained her speed suddenly and under a well-judged ride ran a surprisingly good race. Mathews hugged the rail on the far turn and came through on the inside at the natural spread at the head of the stretch. Expelled hung a trifle at the end. Emma C. L. showed a lot of speed, but lost much ground by swinging wide on the turns. Zaza ran a fair race. Remark appeared to have a chance at the three furlongs post, but was pinched out of it on the stretch turn. Aaron and Princess Tatyana both collapsed suddenly after running about three furlongs at top speed.
Overweights—Princess Tatyana, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Inspector B.—Rosa Bucklen.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third whipped out. Monos broke fully in his stride and Coburn made a runaway race of it. He was much the best and made a creditable showing. Ollie J. was hard ridden from start to finish. In fact Robertson pulled his whip when passing the half mile ground and used it from there to the end. Under a weak ride Sculptress ran a good race. Baker's handling of Patroon was a joke. He stated to the judges after the race that he was afraid to send Patroon along on the far turn for fear he would run out again in the stretch. It was a bad looking ride. Defender II. and Golden Scepter were never keen contenders.
Overweights—Monos, 3½ pounds; Sculptress, 2; Ollie J., 1.

Winner—B. f, by Governor Foraker—Patoka.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second hand ridden. Yana is a filly of more than ordinary class and, after getting away fully in her stride, smothered her field with speed. She is strictly a front runner and Dominick made a special effort not to let anything head him. Aransas ran a good race, but was no match for Yana. Arigato finished where he did simply because the bridle on Lady Bird slipped, making it impossible for Birkenruth to do more than stick on. Chanson was pulled up at the start and Jackson never made a move on her after that.
Aransas, show, 1 to 4. Arigato, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Pirate of Penzance—Bettie Wilson.
Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second driving to the limit. Pirate's Queen, at a snail's pace, was going well in hand all the way. She tired, however, in the last fifty yards and had to be hand ridden to stall off Red Apple's rush. Rice, on the latter, evidently had his eyes shut when he went to the first turn. He was in a tight place, but by whipping and kicking he managed to bump Red Apple through. The colt ran a fair race, but at that is hardly Pirate's Queen's equal. Merriman had no mischances and did his best. The other two were beaten off and seemed to be useless as racing material.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 7 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Helen Print showed great speed when rounding the turn and in the stretch, but was tiring at the finish. Schwabe got off poorly and had bad racing luck, but was coming very strongly at the end and was best. All Mine ran a fairly good race. Maggie Clepton ran well to the stretch but tired in the final furlong. Urmit showed an early dash of speed but quit early. Queen Burlington and Margery Long hardly ran to their true form.

Time, 12½, 24½, 50½, 57.

Winner—Br. c. by Kingstock—Carmenita.
Went to post at 4:17. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Andy Williams went to the front when his rider was ready. He is the best colt that has shown here. Mamie English showed to better advantage on a good track. Latonia also made a good showing and is getting into good form. Waninta quit in the stretch. Swan Dance did not run to her Nashville form. May Quick showed speed.

Overweights—Swan Dance, ½ pound.

Andy Williams, show, 2 to 5. Mamie English, show, 4 to 5. Latonia, show, 8 to 1. Waninta, show, out.

Winner—B. m. by Cedarwood—Red Girl.
Went to post at 4:51. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of two; second easily. Miss Redwood was best ridden and was carefully nursed until the crisis came. Rare Perfume might have won had his rider been of any assistance to him. Frank McConnell only beat Ocone because the latter was tiring. Ocone, however, ran in improved form. Strathbrock showed his usual speed and quitting disposition. Flop and Abe Furst wheeled just after the flag fell.

Scratched—24203 Paschal, 95.

Miss Redwood, show, out. Rare Perfume, show, out. Frank McConnell, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Esher—Kitty Greame.

Went to post at 5:26. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Edna Gerry was a big surprise and her victory was more or less of a fluke. Had Berman, on Little Sallie, gone on about his business he would have won. As it was the race was stolen from him. Anxious weakened at the critical moment. Brother Fred was a false favorite on this kind of a track.

Scratched—24586 Grandma II., 108.

Overweights—Little Sallie, 1 pound.

Edna Gerry, show, 3 to 1. Little Sallie, show, out. Anxious, show, 3 to 2. Brother Fred, show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Orizaba—Nadavis.
Went to post at 2:10. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won in a sharp drive of three. Rainier ran to his best form and stood a long drive in the gamiest possible fashion but Estro would have won if her rider had not pulled up at the start thinking it no go. Sylvan Lass appeared exceedingly dangerous at the head of the homestretch but could not get up. Senator Matts ran well. Guilder was pocketed in the homestretch after showing considerable speed.

Scratched—24354 Whaleback, 121; 23988 Kastaine, 119.

Rainier, show, 7 to 10. Estro, show, 2 to 5. Sylvan Lass, show, 8 to 1. Faunette, show, 4 to 5.

24718 SECOND RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $350. 2-year-olds. Maidens.
